POLICE PROCEEDINGS—Tuesday, May 27, Conrad Harkman, drunk and disorderly conduct, and assaulting a young lady, taken to prison.

Samuel Stafford, an old man, aged about ninety years, drank a little too much beer; being of such advanced age and promising to leave the city immediately, if not sooner, he was discharged.

John Dunn, charged with stealing a pair of pantaloons worth over four dollars; continued until to-morrow morning.

W. Murray, charged with fast riding, and carrying concealed, a deadly weapon; fined $5, and held to bail in $100 to answer an indictment; gave bail.

Mike Haley, charged with fast driving; fined $5.

Rachel, a slave of Lewis Janson, and Frank, a slave of Isaac Miller, charged with arson, discharged.

John Cochran was bailed out of the courthouse.

UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENT—Last evening, as the steam fire engine, "Sim. Watkins, No. 5," was proceeding to the fire, she capsized on the corner of Eighth and Broadway, by which accident Capt. F. M. Atkinson had his left leg maimed in a horrible manner—so much so that amputation will be deemed necessary. We hope he is not so dangerously crippled as reported, for he has been an old and efficient fireman in this city for a number of years.

THE TABLAUX—Notwithstanding the inclement weather last night, Masonic Temple was crowded with a fashionable and appreciative audience. The entertainment was, indeed, conducted with the skill worthy of those who took part in it. The songs were admirably sung, and the whole affair is worthy a repetition at some not far distant period.

THE BROKEN LEG.—An Irishman named Malachi Gilmar, who was assisting to load hay into a wagon from a store on Fourth street, between Main and the river, met with a sad accident yesterday evening. A bale of hay fell upon him, breaking one of his legs. It is thought amputation will not be necessary.

THE FIRE—Yesterday afternoon, about four o'clock, a fire broke out on Magazine, between Ninth and Tenth streets, but was extinguished without much damage. The steam engines were promptly on the spot, but were not called into service.

THEATRE—To-night Miss Kate Fisher will produce a dramatization of one of Dickens' best stories—Dot, or the Cricket on the Hearth. Miss Fisher will appear as Dot. From what we have seen of her, we think she will render the character in good style.

THE NUISANCE.—There is a huge mud hole—general rendezvous for hogs to wallow in, at the corner of Floyd and Market streets, which should at once be filled up and attended to by the Street Inspector of the Eastern District.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.—See advertisement of Diamond Cross Lost. A very liberal reward is offered to the finder, who will either leave it at this office or at Wm. Kendrick's jewelry store, Third street.

COUNCIL.—The two Boards of the Council were in session last night. The Board of Aldermen passed the Police Bill as it was amended by the Common Council. The Council will meet again to-morrow evening.

THE SHELBY STREET CHURCH Mile Society met last night at the residence of Mr. O. Olmsted. It was an evening heartily enjoyed and well spent by those who were in attendance.

WELL DONE.—The picnic at Knapp's Garden, on the 19th, for the benefit of the St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum, netted, after paying all expenses, the handsome sum of $2,208.43.

There will be a splendid picnic given by Captain Daly's company of Provost Guards, in Miller's Woods, to-morrow. A gay time is anticipated—much fun!

A RUNAWAY—Last evening a horse attached to a spring wagon became frightened and ran out Tenth street, completely demolishing the wagon. No one hurt.

Our market houses are bountifully supplied with edibles. We noticed a large and elegant supply of strawberries yesterday morning.

THANKS.—We are under obligations to Messrs. Wilson and Collins, of Adams Express, for Nashville and St. Louis papers yesterday.

RAIN.—We had a small sprinkle of rain last evening—enough to lay the dust, but not enough to cool the air.

Third street and out to the House of Refuge is becoming the popular road for an evening drive.

THANKS.—We are thankful to our good looking friend, O. B. Smart, Esq., for numerous favors.

What is to be Done?

We have already called the attention of our City Council and merchants to the danger that our trade with the lower Ohio will be entirely cut off from this city, unless something is done, and that speedily, as a remedy. In this connection we call attention to the following items, from the New Albany Ledger of last evening:

"The receipt of tobacco at this point continues very heavy. The Grey Eagle yesterday put off one hundred and fifteen bushels, and every boat below, below the charge made on each of this great staple on our landing. The low water on Portland will soon cause a cessation of all shipments above this point."

"The river in front of Portland is rapidly filling up with sand washings from the big bar between Sand Island and the Kentucky shore. There is not more than five feet water at the landing for boats to load on, and this daily becoming more scant from the accumulation of sand."

What to do, is the question, and one that ought to be decided very soon. As a temporary relief, we suggest the paving of Fountain Ferry road to the river, and the grading and paving of a wharf in West Louisville, if it can be done under the authority of the Council.

RICH AND RARE.—We are indebted to Mr. L. A. Civil, Main street, for a package of extra well worth having. A pencil with a rubber attached, only ten cents—everybody should have one; a sample of the miniature or card portraits of prominent patriots and rebels; samples of the Parlor Gems, consisting of beautiful illustrations in tint on cards—these latter only cost fifteen cents each, and are very pretty little ornaments, especially the one entitled, "Just Nine Pounds."

Also for the following books: Historical War Maps, beautifully gotten up for pocket use, price 25 cents. A poem in four cantos, called "Our Flag," which we don't much admire, as it carries a falsehood in its title page. Artemus Ward's Book, giving his wonderful experiences in all parts of the world, a book to cure hypochondriacs, consisting of short poems of a patriotic or national character. And last, though by no means least, Victor Hugo's celebrated work, Les Misérables, which was suppressed for 25 years by a censors.

Colonel Walker immediately sent troops to the support of the Marshal as he required, and it is the intention of the latter to arrest several of the prominent sympathizers with secession in Bath county, and hold them responsible for the safety of the abstracted Union men. We like this energetic action; let the might and power and majesty of the Government be felt in the support of its loyal citizens, and do not permit the Southern Confederacy to influence in any action towards those who violate all the rules of civilized warfare—Evening Bulletin, 27th, inst.

GEN. HARVEY.—This officer, whom we have heard so little since he was relieved of command at St. Louis, still resides on his property near that city. A correspondent of the Philadelphia Press says:

"Gen. Harvey is living in a quiet and retired life, and recently bought a fine house for the 'addition' and comes into the city occasionally, attracting a good deal of attention by his faded bearing, yet devoid of all military trapping, his dress being a plain suit of black. He doubtless watches the movements on the great chess-board, in the game of the 'Union,' with a good deal of interest."

There are many who believe that the keeping of Harvey out of service is a great mistake. He has been 44 years in the army, and is outranked only by McClellan, Fremont and Wool. —Detroit Free Press, 24th.

CONFEDERATE NOTES NOT CURRENT.—There was a new dodge in the market this morning, which gave great annoyance to both persons having property to buy. Most of the individuals who had to pay their money back, or to make a good deal of trouble, to get out of the trap, are the 'addition' and comes into the city occasionally, attracting a good deal of attention by his faded bearing, yet devoid of all military trapping, his dress being a plain suit of black. He doubtless watches the movements on the great chess-board, in the game of the 'Union,' with a good deal of interest."

There are many who believe that the keeping of Harvey out of service is a great mistake. He has been 44 years in the army, and is outranked only by McClellan, Fremont and Wool. —Detroit Free Press, 24th.

SHIRES OF CONVICTION PROPERTY.—Mr. E. R. Glasscock, United States Marshal for the Middle District of Tennessee, on last Saturday seized upon the following printing offices in Nashville, property forfeited to the United States, under the Confiscation Act of August 6, 1861: Republican Banner office, Union and American office, Gazette office and Southern Methodist Publishing House; and on Monday the Patriot office and Baptist Publishing House, being all the offices in the city. He also seized upon two gun factories in South Nashville, belonging to stock companies.

AID AND COMFORT.—Mrs. N. B. Smith, President of the Soldiers' Aid Association, requests us to acknowledge a second contribution for sick soldiers from Dr. Gibson, proprietor of the Capitol Drug Store, corner of Third and Green streets. The wines, cordials, and toilette articles will be gratefully received by the invalids of the hospitals. Dr. Gibson has also contributed a box of pamphlets and reading matter for stock companies.

GEN. HALLECK AND THE CORRESPONDENTS.—The correspondents and some of the papers sending them are very indignant because General Halleck has driven them from the army lines. To our notion, the movement is eminently proper, and if it had been adopted at the beginning of the war, and rigidly enforced, we should have had peace at least three months ago. There are very few special correspondents who attempt or desire to tell the truth.

THE COMMERCIAL—In the weekly report of mortality among the soldiers in the military hospitals and camps in the vicinity of St. Louis, we find the names of the following:

THEATRE—Yesterday afternoon, about four o'clock, a fire broke out on Magazine, between Ninth and Tenth streets, but was extinguished without much damage. The steam engines were promptly on the spot, but were not called into service.

CONDENMED HORSES AND MULES AT AUCTION.—We call the attention of farmers and others to the advertisement of Lt. W. D. Ernest, Acting Assistant Quartermaster, offering condemned horses and mules for sale at public auction, on the 5th of June next, at the Oakland Race Course.

THE NEW ALBANY LEDGER announces some ten or twelve deaths occurring in the hospitals in that city for the week ending yesterday, and states that it is the heaviest mortality of any week since the hospitals were established in that city.

THE UNION meeting at Murfreesboro, Tenn., was a glorious gathering of the people. The young men of the land were out. The watch-fires of the Union are spreading rapidly throughout the Commonwealth.
